PLEASE REMEMBER your face coverings when attending Mass and to sanitise your hands on your arrival and as you leave the church. ## GUIDANCE FOR THE CELEBRATION OF HOLY WEEK.

PALM SUNDAY – The Procession commemorating The Lord’s Entrance into Jerusalem is omitted this year. The Mass will begin at the entrance to the church where the Palm Branches will be blessed, and the Gospel of the Lord’s Entry into Jerusalem will be proclaimed. The shorter form of the Passion from the Gospel of St Mark is read by Priest alone. The crowd responses are not to be read by the congregation. The blessed Palm Branches will be distributed to the congregation as they leave the church after Mass.

MAUNDY THURSDAY – The Washing of the Feet is omitted, and there is to be no procession to the Altar of Repose. The Reserved Sacrament will be kept in the Tabernacle. The Priest may spend a little time in silent prayer before the Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle before exiting the sanctuary. The congregation are encouraged to also kneel in adoration during this time. Once the Priest leaves the sanctuary the congregation should leave church in the now way. For reasons of health and safety, Watching in lieu of the Altar of Repose is not possible.

GOOD FRIDAY – Due to the pandemic we have moved our Stations of the Cross will be celebrated later at 2:00pm. However, this year it will be led from the lectern, and not involve the following of the individual Stations around the church. Walks of Witness are not permitted. The proclamation of the Passion according to St John will be read by the Priest plus two other readers. The congregation responses are not permitted.

The Adoration of the Holy Cross is limited to the Priest. After he has done this, the Cross will be elevated for a brief time, and the congregation will be invited to adore the Holy Cross, in silence, with a profound bow or by genuflecting, from their seats, followed by another short period of silent prayer.

EASTER VIGIL – For the celebration of the Easter Vigil, the Paschal Candle will be prepared in the usual way, enthroned, and lit in the Sanctuary, but by the Priest alone, and before the congregation gather in the church. The Priest will process in silence to the sanctuary where the Priest begins the celebration and with the Sign of the Cross and the Greeting. At the end of the Greeting, the Shorter Form of the Easter Proclamation (the Exsultet) which is read, and not sung, immediately follows. The congregation will not be allowed to hold candles for the Easter Vigil. After the homily the Priest blesses the baptismal water in the font and the Renewal of Baptismal Promises are made by those present. However, the asperges (sprinkling with holy water) is omitted. The Liturgy of the Eucharist follows in the usual manner.

EASTER SUNDAY will be celebrated as normal, but without the sprinkling of holy water as part of the Renewal of Baptismal Promises.
