FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)

First Reading: Ezekiel 2:2-5

Second Reading: 2 Cor 12:7-10

Gospel: Mk 6:1-6

4th July 2021

Ezekiel and Paul both provide us with a valuable lesson in discipleship in today readings. Their work for God brings them into situations that they would not choose for themselves and appears on occasions to meet with failure. However, they have both learned that if they keep their focus on the Lord of the work then they need have no worries about their work for the Lord.

All their experiences can be of service to him if undergone in a spirit of humble faith. Similarly, it is the lack of just such a humble faith that prohibits the spread of the kingdom in Nazareth.

LOCKDOWN EASING

1. Sanitising hands on entry to churches. No hand sanitisation is necessary as you leave.
2. The wearing of face masks and social distancing are still required.
3. The Bidding Prayers or Prayer of the Faithful has been restored.
4. We have returned to the normal practice of responding individually as we receive Holy Communion: the Eucharist Minister or Priest will say 'The Body of Christ' the communicant may reply, 'Amen.'
5. Currently single small group of singers will be allowed. This should be limited to groups of no more than 6, with social distancing being maintained.
6. There is no restriction on the number of people attending a funeral, so this now depends on the safe capacity of the church.
7. 30 people may be present at a baptism.
8. 30 people may be present at a wedding.

BAPTISM - Congratulations to Simeon Adeoluwa Kenekwku on his baptism today. May God Bless him, his parents, family and Godparents.

BRENTWOOD CATHEDRAL TABERNACLE - The Tabernacle houses the real presence of Our Lord and is in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel. Unfortunately, it, the statue of Our Lady and the door of Mercy entrance have all been vandalised.
