THIRTY- SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIMES (C)

6TH NOVEMBER 2022

First Reading: 2 Maccabees: 7:1-2, 9-14

Second Reading: 2Thess: 2:16-3:5

Gospel: Luke 20:27-38

In today's Gospel, we hear about an encounter between Jesus and some Sadducees. The Sadducees were a party of Judaism active in Jesus' time, descended from the priestly family of Zadok. They were literal interpreters of the written Law of Moses, which means that they were in disagreement with the position of the Pharisees, who offered an oral interpretation of the Law of Moses. The Sadducees are described in this Gospel as opponents to the belief in resurrection. In the dialogue presented here, we see an example of the means of disputation that was common in first century Judaism. The Sadducees use the example of Levirate marriage, found in the Law of Moses, to disprove belief in the resurrection. According to Deuteronomy 25:5-10, if a man died without producing an heir, the man's brother should marry his wife and the offspring of this union would inherit the property and carry on the name of the man who had died. The Sadducees use this as an example to challenge belief in the resurrection. Jesus argues from the same written Law of Moses to show that there is resurrection. Using the texts from the Book of Exodus (Chapter 3) that describe Moses' encounter with God in the burning bush, Jesus shows that God is the God of the living, not the dead. Here Jesus uses the same method and texts of the Sadducees to counter them. As the Gospel text suggests, he beat them at their own game! More importantly, in this discourse Jesus shows the limits of our imaginations when it comes to eternal life. The Sadducees argued against resurrection because of the limits of earthly existence. They did not imagine another possibility for existence and relationship with God. Jesus proposes that the possibilities of resurrected life are beyond our imaginations. Jesus' conclusion suggests something else as well: To spend time worrying about resurrected life is to miss the point. The point is eternal relationship with God is possible, for God is the God of the living, "... for to him all are alive."

ALL SOULS - On Wednesday 2nd November, the Commemoration of All Souls, it was very moving to pray with family members and friends who had lost loved ones during the last year. Throughout November we pray for those who have died, and for those who grieve. At each Mass we will pray for those named in the purple pouch which place in front of the altar; you can add names using the envelopes for the Holy Souls and sheets at the back of the church.

WORLD YOUTH SUNDAY, 20th NOVEMBER 2022 -World Youth Sunday is a unique opportunity to celebrate the role and significance of young people in the Catholic Church in England and Wales, along with the global Church. A representative of The Brentwood Catholic Youth Service will be speaking about their work, and holding second collection on this weekend. (you can also donate online at www.bcys.net/donate) Anything you can give is so greatly appreciated, as any money raised on will go towards supporting those in need of financial support to go on pilgrimages and to events, as well as allowing us to continue running our events, provide support and training to those working with young people and so much more. And of course, please do pray for all young people in your parish, in our Diocese and around the world.

THE CAMPION SCHOOL – KITCHEN ASSISTANT (BANK STAFF) -Do you have experience and skills working in a kitchen environment? Are you looking for work without the need to commit all of your time? If so please keep reading. At The Campion School in Hornchurch, Essex we are looking to recruit a bank of kitchen assistants that can support the excellent team where there may be periods of absence, training or need for additional staff due to events that are taking place. The value of bank work is that you have a choice to work or not when the need is required. Current hourly rates range between £12.49-£12.99 inclusive of holiday pay which is based on experience and this is subject to pay review. We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and we expect all staff to share this commitment. All short-listed applicants will be subject to a social media check based on the latest Keeping Children Safe in Education Guidance. We require the successful candidate to undertake an enhanced criminal records check via the Disclosure and Barring Service. Closing Date: 21st November 2022, Interviews will be held on 24th November 2022.
