PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD [A]

2ND APRIL 2023

First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7 Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11 Gospel: Matthew 26:14 - 27:66

On this Palm Sunday we reflect upon a paradox of triumph and tragedy: the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem on the one hand and the Gospel proclamation of the passion and death of Jesus on the other. And even in the tragedy of Good Friday there is the triumph of Easter; Jesus, crucified, risen and in our midst.

Next Thursday, Friday and Saturday are known as the Triduum or three days.

On Thursday we will commemorate the Lord's Supper: there is the washing of feet (a symbol of service); and then the eating of a meal—a sacrificial meal—in which Jesus gives himself to us in the signs of bread and wine (a symbol of our oneness not only with God but also with the human family).

On Good Friday we meditate upon the passion and death of Jesus: the Garden of Gethsemane; the trial; the crucifixion; and the burial; the veneration of the cross; and then a simple communion service.

And at the Easter vigil we reflect upon the passage of Jesus from this earthly life through death into eternal life; the resurrection of Jesus is the pledge of our own liberation or deliverance from death or nothingness into eternal life. The Vigil includes: fire (a symbol of Jesus as the light who illuminates the darkness around us); it also includes the proclamation of the story of our salvation in the Scriptures; the renewal of our baptismal promises; and the Eucharist.

Easter proclaims that Jesus is risen; alive among us, and especially alive in the sacramental life of our Catholic community.

RECEPTION OF HOLY COMMUNION UNDER BOTH KINDS - Following a recent Bishops' Conference Bishop Alan is happy to give permission for reception of Holy Communion under both kinds from Maundy Thursday onwards. It has always been the teaching of the Church that the fullness of the Sacrament of Holy Communion is present in either the Body or the Blood of Christ. There is a completeness in receiving both, but this is not an expectation and it is not a rule; please do whatever you are most comfortable to do.

CONGRATULATIONS - This year our Easter Vigil celebration is especially enriched with the Reception of 2 people into Full Communion with us in the Church. Carol Patricia Lawrence and Alexander Fairweather. May God Bless them.

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION - Collection taken up at this celebration for the up keep of Holy Places & for Catholics of the Holy Land. Thank you for your continued support.
