VOLUNTEERING FOR BRONZE DUKE OF EDINBURGH - For the volunteering section of my Bronze Duke of Edinburgh I contacted the St Francis Hospice to see how I could volunteer and help them. It is a charity that my family and I like to support as my auntie, grandmother and great grandmother were all looked after there. St Francis Hospice provides palliative and end of life care, as well as support for families and loved ones and I am hoping that my volunteering will help raise money as well as awareness of the hospice and the important work it does. Sean Erwood, a member of their fundraising team, has agreed that I can help them raise funds by collecting used stamps, which they can use to raise money. I am therefore asking all my teachers, friends, family and church to help me. Father Joseph has said that he is happy for me to ask the parishioners of The Most Holy Redeemer and St Dominic's to save their used stamps for me via the Church newsletter, and place them in the box that I will bring to church and leave in the foyer. Many thanks for all your help and support Josh Harkins.
