FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIMES [A]

16TH JULY 2023

First Reading: Isaiah 55:10-11 Second Reading: Romans 8:12-23 Gospel: Mathew 13:1-23

By the parable of the sower and the seed in today's Gospel, Jesus describes four types of receptivity to the seed of the word of God he is trying to sow in each of us. Our whole life on earth and eternity can be summarized by this parable, because the whole point of human life — the ultimate reason why we're here — is to respond to this gift of God's action in our lives. In the first three types of soil, Jesus suggests that all of God's work was wasted, because the seed never bore fruit. The implication is that the determination of whether our life will be successful in the final analysis or a waste depends on how much fruit we bear in response to the gift of God in our lives. As Jesus says so directly, "Whoever has ears to hear ought to hear!" — the ancient way to say "pay attention!"

Jesus explains that the four kinds of soil represent people who hear God's message to them and respond in different ways. Some reject it out of hand. Some show initial interest which then either fades when it proves more demanding than they had expected, or gets pushed out of their minds by everyday pressures and busyness. But some embrace it, come to faith, and produce a life fruitful in service and witness, In the real-life experience of the farmer, there would be a large proportion of the seed-not merely a quarter of it as the four different responses might seem to imply. We're partners with God in the field of his world.

DIOCESAN SECOND COLLECTION STELLA MARIS - This Sunday Sea Farers & Fishers play a vital role in all of our lives, but they often work in difficult, hazardous conditions. In the last year, more crews have been abandoned by their employers than ever before. Many are still being denied the right to leave their ships for even a short break away from the relentless noise and pressure onboard. Many are reporting more stress and poorer mental health. It is when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Your support will make a big difference to seafarers and fishers in need. You can donate in church, by visiting www.stellamaris.org.uk/donate, or by texting 'SEA' to 70460 to donate £5. This collection is vital to enable Stella Maris (formerly called Apostleship of the Sea) to continue its important work - Thank You for your continued support.
