SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIMES [A]

30TH JULY 2023

First Reading: 1 Kings 3:5, 7-12 Second Reading: Romans 8:28-30 Gospel: Mathew 13:44-52

How we choose to live in this world has a bearing on the next life. We cannot be with God for ever in heaven unless we are with him during this earthly life. We prepare for the next life — a life enjoying the eternal happiness of heaven — by living this life as fully as possible in the presence of God. We are challenged to be faithful to Christ's teaching and example, keeping his commandments.

The Church teaches us that hell exists. But it has never declared that there is anyone in there. Instead, it offers us access to God's life through its preaching of the word of God and the sacraments. So will it be heaven or will it be hell for eternity? We must choose.
