FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIMES (B)

14th July 2024

First Reading: Amos 7:12-15 Second Reading: Ephesians 1:3-14 Gospel: Mark 6:7-13

There is a certain freedom about accepting the word of God and the Gospel of Christ. Jesus tells his disciples not to force the truth of the Gospel on people. If they don't accept it and welcome it they are to move on.

The journey of faith is complicated and a long journey. People accept bits and pieces at times, and remain open to further growth. We sometimes expect too much of people and forget that their life stories and their struggles may make it too much to accept a lot of the gospel. Is the person whose spouse left him or her condemned forever to a single life? Or some types of criminal people never to be forgiven and welcomed back in the church?

The reason the apostles would walk away is that people would not listen to them, not that they would not do what they said. We hope for an openness to the gospel from people, as we hope for an openness to everyone's life story when we try to share the word of Jesus.

This is true for parents and teachers; we open the word of God and the truth of Jesus to younger people, and hope that now or later they will be followers of Jesus. It does not happen immediately.

The prophet Amos seems to come from an ordinary job to be a prophet; from the ordinary ways we try to follow Christ and live out the gospel we can share the best of our faith with another generation.

St Pope John Paul II often referred to the family home as 'the domestic Church.' It's a good phrase, for it is in the home where both parents pray with their children that the faith of the next generation is placed on a firm foundation and the kingdom of God is built up among us - and the mission Jesus began to trust to pairs of his disciples continues still today.

DIOCESAN SECOND COLLECTION STELLA MARIS (SEA SUNDAY)- This Sunday, let us pray for seafarers, fishers, and the work of Stella Maris. When seafarers and fishers arrive in a foreign port, they are strangers, often thousands of miles from home. Stella Maris' chaplains and volunteer ship visitors welcome them, listen to their concerns, and help provide what they need. Stella Maris' chaplains and volunteer ship visitors answer Jesus' call to give hospitality to the stranger. To find out more about Sea Sunday, please visit: <https://stellamaris.org.uk/seasunday/> To donate to Stella Maris, please go to: <https://stellamaris.org.uk/donate/>, there will be a second collection after all Masses.
