Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A) (World day of the Sick)

15th February 2026

First Reading: Sirach 15:15-20 Second Reading: 1 Corin 2: 6 - 10 Gospel: Matthew 5:17-37

Someone asked St Mother Teresa of Calcutta, "What will we be judged on?" She responded, "I believe that when we die and the time comes for us to be judged, God will not ask how many good things we did in our lives, but only with how much love we did them."

St Mother Teresa's reflection helps us move toward a synthesis. As we learned last Sunday, "Where you synthesis is, there lies your heart." Pope Francis writes about the importance of preaching not "detached ideas" but a synthesis. We saw that for our culture, the synthesis comes down to this: Do good deeds and treat the poor kindly. When a person asks a simple question, however, it becomes apparent that doing good deeds cannot summarize the entire Gospel. The question is: Why? Why do good deeds? Why care for the poor? It is not because of some innate generosity, but because of the recognition of one's own radical poverty. God rescues us from the misery of Egypt. That rescue becomes total in the perfect sacrifice of Jesus. Ultimately we can only love others because God loves us.

So as St Mother Teresa observes, what matters are not the deeds, but the love with which one does them. We can see that in today's Gospel. Our care for the underserved must be a part of observing the entire moral law. Jesus mentions three main precepts: You shall not kill, you shall not commit adultery, you shall not lie (swear false oaths). Violations of those precepts fall hardest on the poor. They are more likely to be victims of violence and a disproportionate number of abortions take place in our poorer communities. Adultery and subsequent family break-up causes misery on all levels of society, but once again disproportionately among the poor. Lack of marital commitment in turn creates a cycle of poverty. And of course false oaths (lies) impoverish society, while the ability to make and fulfil contracts lifts up a society.

A person is what the heart is. Our chief concern, then, must be to get the heart right. If the heart is right, then our deeds will be true and genuine. They will flow from what we are, as naturally as good fruits from a good tree. You can't go any deeper than that.
